Present

HANS J. MOBIUS was born in North Bellmore, NY in 1934, and attended the University of Buffalo after serving four years in the Air Force During the Korean War. Mr. Mobius then trained horses professionally before dedicating over thirty years to the businesses he owned, Buffalo Office Supplies and The Copy Cat. During those years he was very active in the community. He is a professional show horse appraiser, past president of the Erie County Farm Bureau, and past chairman of the New York State Farm Bureau Equine Committee. He is currently a trustee of the Buffalo Transportation Museum. He also serves on the Town of Clarence Land Preservation Board. He resides at Maple Row Farm in Clarence, New York. He along with his wife and daughter run a 100 acre full-care equestrian facility for over thirty horses and farm approximately 60 acres of timothy and alfalfa hay.
