DEC Invites Public to Comment About Brownfield Cleanup Program Application and Draft Investigation and Interim Cleanup Measures Work Plans for Site on Buffalo River Rd. and Ohio St., Buffalo

The New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) has received a Brownfield Cleanup Program (BCP) application, Draft Remedial Investigation Work Plan and Draft Remedial Investigation/Interim Remedial Measures/Alternatives Analysis Work Plan from Silo City Phase I LLC for a site known as Silo City Phase I Project, site ID #C915361. This site is located in the City of Buffalo within the County of Erie and is located at 139 Buffalo River Road and 610 Ohio Street.

Access the application and other relevant documents online through the DECinfo Locator: https://www.dec.ny.gov/data/DecDocs/C915361/. The documents will also be available at the document repository once reopened, located at Buffalo and Erie County Public Library, 1 Lafayette Square, Buffalo, NY 14203.

There are several ways to comment on BCP applications. Comments can be submitted to the site Project Manager Andrew Zwack at NYSDEC, 270 Michigan Ave., Buffalo, NY 14203-2915; via email at andrew.zwack@dec.ny.gov or by calling 716-851-7220. All comments must be submitted by July 3, 2020.

What is the Brownfield Cleanup Program?

New York's Brownfield Cleanup Program (BCP) is designed to encourage private-sector cleanups of brownfields and to promote their redevelopment as a means to revitalize economically blighted communities. The BCP is an alternative to "greenfield" (land not previously developed or contaminated) development and is intended to remove some of the barriers to, and provide tax incentives for, the redevelopment of brownfields. Since its inception (2003), the BCP has catalyzed the cleanup of more than 300 contaminated sites statewide and incentivized redevelopment. There are more than 350 active sites in the BCP.

Additional information on the State's Brownfield program is available at DEC's website: http://www.dec.ny.gov/chemical/8450.html
