

The Town of Clarence Youth Bureau Presents:

Young Artists Program

For Grades 3-5

This 5 session program is offered to students who enjoy art and working with others to explore their creativity. The program will be instructed by Colleen McCarriagher, a New York State Certified Art Teacher and Clarence Central School District alumnus.

Each session will focus on instruction of various artists, art materials and techniques. Activities include paper and bookmaking, painting, sculpting, drawing and much more. Come ready to learn new skills and have fun exercising your imagination! Students of all artistic backgrounds are welcome. Student artwork will be showcased at an art show on June 19, 2012 at the Clarence Youth Bureau.
