

Town of Clarence Youth Board and Youth Bureau

2013 Educational Speaker Series

Monday, November 4

7:00 pm

Clarence Town Hall
One Town Pl.

This free educational presentation will provide up-to-date information about various issues affecting teens, their families and communities as a whole.

Topics covered will include: current drug use trends with a focus on prescription drugs, and the disturbing surge of heroin use and addiction as it relates to the new I-STOP Law.

Clarence Judge Mike Powers will present information about the Town of Clarence Drug Court and newly formed Youth Court.

Each year, 15,000 people die from painkillers. More than half of abusers are between the ages of 12 and 25.

Our panel of speakers includes:

Honorable Judge Michael Powers, Town of Clarence Court

Agent Michelle Spahn, Buffalo Drug Enforcement Administration

Senior Detective Alan Rozansky, Erie County Sheriff's Office

William J. Hochul Jr., United States Attorney's Office

This free educational presentation is open to adults and teens. Questions can be directed to the Youth Bureau at 407-2162
