(b) costs awarded in the foreclosure judgment;

(c) all taxes, assessments and water and sewer rates which are liens upon the real estate, but which have become such subsequent to the filing of the Notice of Pendency (5/7/18), or for the non payment of which no tax sale has been had prior thereto, shall be paid in the inverse order of the time at which such taxes and assessments became liens;

JOSEPH L. MACIEJEWSKI
Erie County Director of Real Property Tax Services, as Referee

Exhibit A

Bidders at the tax foreclosure sale are advised that if winning bid amounts are not sufficient to satisfy certain real estate tax liens, these liens remain open, valid and enforceable.

At the beginning of this foreclosure proceeding, the List of Delinquent Properties was filed in the Erie County Clerk's Office on May 7, 2018. This document served as a Notice of Pendency relative to the property at issue herein. The Notice of Pendency confirms the filing of the foreclosure against the premises involved. By law, tax liens arising after the date of the filing of the Notice of Pendency survive the foreclosure sale. If the funds paid by the winning bidder to acquire the premises are not sufficient to pay these taxes, they continue to attach to the premises and are the responsibility of the new owner.

For each parcel in this In Rem 166 auction, the Notice of Pendency date is May 7, 2018. Tax liens arising subsequent to that date survive the sale to the extent not paid by the bid proceeds. Tax liens arising prior to May 7, 2018 are eliminated by the sale if not fully paid by the bid proceeds.

Any and all taxes that arise after the Notice of Pendency filing on May 7, 2018 survive the sale to the extent not paid by the bid proceeds.

The Referee shall not be responsible for any liens, assessments or other encumbrances not discovered until after the closing. In such a circumstance, the purchaser shall be responsible for paying or otherwise resolving such liens, assessments or encumbrances and shall have no recourse against the Referee, the County of Erie, its agents, servants or employees.
