

Wednesday
November 16, 2011

GIS Day is held on Wednesday during International Geography Awareness Week. The Department of Environment and Planning – Office of Geographic Information Services is holding a number of exciting GIS Day events for Erie County employees and residents!

Things to check out on GIS Day, November 16, 2011

✦ MAP GALLERY

Maps and posters will be on display in the lobby. Stop by and take a look at how GIS is used for a wide range of projects in Erie County and beyond.

When? All Day

Where? Lobby of the Rath building

✦ GIS FORUM FOR ERIE COUNTY DEPARTMENTS

Attend this forum if you want to know more about the County's GIS program or if you want to learn how GIS technology and data can work for your department! GIS staff will demonstrate how spatial applications are currently being used, and will discuss how departments can get started with GIS, using the wealth of data that is available in the GIS Office and online.

When? 10:00 to 11:30 am

Where? Rath Building, Room 1004

✦ PUBLIC OPEN HOUSE

Do you want a hands-on demonstration of how GIS works? Attend our open house and create a map of your property showing aerial photos, property boundaries, floodplains, and other geographic information. A brief demonstration of how to use the Erie County On-Map Internet Mapping Application will be given at 1:00pm.

When? 1:00 to 3:00 pm

Where? Rath Building, Room 1004
