

COUNTY OF ERIE

LOCAL LAW NO. 4 - 1979

LOCAL LAW INTRO. NO. 23 [Print #1]

1978

A LOCAL LAW amending Local Law No. 1 - 1960, as amended, constituting the Erie County Administrative Code, by amending section 3.05 thereof to change the title of the budget director to director of budget and management, to expand his duties to include the monitoring of the productivity of county administrative units, and to create an advisory board to advise the director of budget and management on matters pertaining to the management and performance of county government.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE ERIE COUNTY LEGISLATURE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1. Section 3.05 of Local Law No. 1 - 1960, as amended, constituting the Erie County Administrative Code, is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 3.05 Division of budget and management. a.

The [budget] director of budget and management shall be the head of the division of budget and management and shall perform all duties in the preparation and submission of the proposed tentative budget and capital program set forth in article eighteen of this code, and all duties prescribed in the charter relating to monitoring the productivity of the various administrative units of county government. He shall, in addition to his powers and duties set forth in the charter or this code, perform such other duties as the county executive may require. The [budget] director of budget and management shall have the power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books, papers and records, to administer oaths and affirmations, and to hear proofs and take testimony necessary in the performance of such duties. A fifteen member advisory board whose members shall be appointed by the county executive shall advise the director of budget and management on all matters pertaining to the management and performance of county government. The members of this board shall not be officers or employees of the county of Erie.

Section 2. All references contained in this code to the budget director shall be deemed to refer to the director of budget and management.

Section 3. This local law shall take effect immediately.
