RANZENHOFER & LARSON:

WHEREAS, the Eden Valley (#2), Eden-Boston (#3), and Eden-Langford (#4) Agricultural Districts were initially created April 14, 1973; and

WHEREAS, Article 25AA of the New York State Agricultural and Markets Law, Section 303.8, specifies that the County Legislative body shall review any agricultural district created under this section eight years after the date of its creation and every eight years thereafter;
and

WHEREAS, pursuant to a resolution on January 23, 1997, the Erie County Legislature directed the Clerk of the Legislature to publish a public notice of the district's review; and

WHEREAS, the district was duly referred to the Erie County Division of Planning and to the Agricultural and Farmland Protection Board (formerly the Agricultural District Advisory Committee) of this Legislature for review of the district; and

WHEREAS, on the 27th day of May, 1997, pursuant to public notice, a public hearing was held within the agricultural districts in the Eden Jr. and Sr. High School; and

WHEREAS, various matters were brought before the public hearing and discussed and considered; and

WHEREAS, the following modifications (additions and deletions) were made to the above Agricultural Districts as follows:

Additions to Eden Valley Agricultural District - Total of 223± acres

RESOLUTION NO. 420 RE: Urging FCC Rejection of Petition for Preemption of Local Zoning Authority. (Int. 21-3)

WHEREAS, the National Association of Broadcasters (NAB) has petitioned the Federal Communications Commission (FCC) seeking a preemption of local zoning authority concerning the citing and construction of certain communications towers, and

WHEREAS, according to the NAB petition, said communications towers and the preemptive citing authority are necessary for the rapid implementation of digital television technology, and

WHEREAS, said petition seeks to replace state and local governments zoning authority with a review and citing process that recognizes the FCC's as the final arbiter in disputes between local governments and petitioners, and

WHEREAS, in many cases these communications towers are one and a half miles high, representing a significant alteration of a local community's landscape, and

WHEREAS, in Erie County, each local community, including three cities, twenty six towns and sixteen villages all have local zoning ordinances and review boards that regularly consider development issues, including the citing of communications towers, and their impact on the local environment, and

WHEREAS, the petition seeking a preemption of state and local zoning authority represents an unwanted and unnecessary intrusion into local autonomy,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Erie County Legislature does hereby go on record in opposition to the NAB petition seeking preemption of state and local zoning authority concerning the citing and construction of communications towers, and be it further

RESOLVED, that this Honorable Body does hereby request that the FCC reject said NAB petition and reaffirm the authority of state and local governments to determine zoning and land use issues, and be it further

RESOLUTION NO. 431 RE: Fencing for the Sheriff's SWAT Training Facility.
(Comm. 21-9)

WHEREAS, section 110 of the "Illegal Immigrant Reform and Immigrant Responsibility act of 1996" requires the immigration and Naturalization Service to develop a system to document the entry and departure of every alien arriving and leaving the United States, and

WHEREAS, such documentation is not practiced with respect to the Canadian and American border, and

WHEREAS, it has been projected that enforcement of section 110 of the Illegal Immigration Reform and Immigrant Responsibility Act of 1996 (IIRIRA) at the Canadian and American border would have a negative financial impact on the tourism and trade industries, especially for cities bordering the Niagara River, and

WHEREAS, to that end, Western New York Congressman John J. LaFalce has introduced an amendment to section 110 of the IIRIRA which clarifies the intent of the legislation and exempts all Canadian nationals who are not otherwise required by law to possess a visa, passport or border-crossing identification card,

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT

RESOLVED, that the Erie County Legislature does hereby recognizes and express its support for the amendment to Section 110 of the IIRIRA, authorized by Congressman LaFalce, so as to maintain a smooth and efficient flow of goods, services and people at our borders, and be it further

RESOLVED, that certified copies of this resolution be forwarded to all members of the Western New York delegation of Congress, Senate, Assembly and Legislature.

Fiscal Impact: None for resolution.
