Attached is a notice about an upcoming meeting about the City of Buffalo's Draft Future Development Plan. The Plan will identify where development should go and how it should occur for every neighborhood in the City. The Plan will serve as the foundation for Buffalo's new zoning code. These efforts also relate to the City's Brownfield Opportunity Area planning grants. This notice was prepared by the City of Buffalo, and is being provided as a courtesy by the Division of Environmental Remediation within the New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (NYSDEC).

The open house meeting is scheduled for Saturday, October 29, 2011 starting at 9:00 am. See notice for details.

The notice is in PDF format. You can save, open, and read the notice by using Adobe Acrobat Reader. If you do not have Adobe Acrobat Reader, you can go to the following web page on the NYSDEC web site to download the program for free:

PLANNING DAY IN BUFFALO

City Unveils Future Development Plan

October 29, 2011

Erie Community College—City Campus
121 Ellicott Street, Buffalo, NY

Formal presentation: 9:00 am, 10:30 am and 1:00 pm Open House: 9:30 am to 3:00 pm

Mayor Byron W. Brown invites you to Planning Day in Buffalo where the city will unveil the Draft Future Development Plan.

The release of the Draft Future Development Plan is an important milestone for Buffalo. The Plan will identify where development should go and how it should occur for every neighborhood in the city. The Plan will serve as the foundation for Buffalo's new zoning code.

Getting it right means making sure it works for you. This will be an opportunity for you to hear about key development strategies, discuss the Plan's impact on your neighborhood and/or business, and to talk about city-wide land use issues. Please be sure to save the date and join us on October 29, 2011.
