STATE OF NEW YORK
COUNTY OF ERIE

ECLEG JUN05'14 PM 1:58

I HEREBY CERTIFY that at the next regular session of the Legislature of Erie County to be held in County Hall in the City of Buffalo, the following is a true and accurate copy of a proclamation that will be adopted:

Whereas, Audrey Jenkins York was born in Worcester, Massachusetts to the late Louis and Mary Armstrong Jenkins and

Whereas, Audrey Jenkins York was a highly intelligent, hard-working, woman who loved bowling, socializing and playing cards and had mastered a few slight of hand card tricks that would put most card sharks to shame; Audrey was a quick study and had sense of humor that enabled her to be the life of the celebration with her infamous one-liners and always without swearing; she also loved to dress up and was very creative in matching her accessories with her outfits and

Whereas, Audrey Jenkins York, who was affectionately called "Auge" by her family and friends, loved life and was very opinionated; she enjoyed having family and friends around her, especially her Grandson and her beloved daughter Wendy, whose extraordinary caretaking of her mother enabled Audrey to enjoy a stress free, wonderful quality of life right up until she took her last breath,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT

Resolved, that the Erie County Legislature does herein extol its deepest sympathies to the Jenkins, York and Rodgers families, and be it further

Resolved, that in honor of the life of Audrey Jenkins York this Honorable Body does herein pause in its deliberations to proclaim Monday, May 19, 2014 as Audrey Jenkins York Day in Erie County.
