

May 15, 2015
STATE OF NEW YORK
COUNTY OF ERIE

I HEREBY CERTIFY that at the next regular session of the Legislature of Erie County to be held in County Hall in the City of Buffalo, the following is a true and accurate copy of a proclamation that will be adopted:

Whereas, On Wednesday May 6th, 2015, the death angel, sent at the behest of Elohim, the Lord God himself, appeared at the bedside of Michelle Marie Mack to escort her to her new heavenly home and,

Whereas, Michelle Marie Mack was born to Bertha Mack and the late James Arthur Mack in Buffalo, New York where she and her 5 siblings were raised; she was educated in the Buffalo Public School System and received an Associate's Degree in Medical Terminology from Bryant and Stratton Institute., and

Whereas, Michelle Marie Mack was a hardworking, God fearing, Christian woman who was baptized at Liberty Missionary Baptist Church where the Right Reverend Jessie Jones is the Pastor; she was a gentle woman who while educated in the medical field, took her outstanding people skills and became a pre-eminent mixologist and restaurant worker; she served customers their choice of spirits with an anointed spirit of her own for over 15 years at Brownie's, Denny's and the famous 416 Club; Michelle was a culinary connoisseur, a gourmet artiste', a gastronomic extraordinaire who was especially renowned for her bar-b-que ribs and mac and cheese; she loved entertaining, hosting her family and spending time with her grandchildren who she doted on daily, and

Whereas, Michelle Marie Mack was a kind, non-judgmental person who was generous to a fault; she willingly opened her home to those in need, especially the neighborhood children who affectionately called her "Mama Michelle; she was a loving and dedicated mother to her own children, a devoted daughter and caretaker, an adoring sibling to her brothers and sisters and a loyal friend, especially to those from her beloved Willert Park Projects; Michelle was a courageous woman who donated her organs to sustain the life of others after God called her home; this was her way of continuing to give to others even from the depths of her own grave,

NOW THEREFORE BE IT

Resolved, that the Erie County Legislature does herein extol its deepest sympathies to Dawanna, Natasha, Quintin, Jakira and the entire Mack Family and be it further

Resolved, that in honor of the extraordinary life Michelle Marie Mack lived and the legacy of love she left behind, this Honorable Body finds it only fitting and proper to proclaim today, Friday, May 15, 2015 as Michelle Marie Mack Day in the County of Erie.
