Dear Erie County Legislator Mills,

I am a proud user of the Eden Library, a member library in the Buffalo & Erie County Public Library System. I want to express my appreciation to you for your past support of library services and urge you to vote in favor of the County Executive's 2016 proposed $23,474,134 allocation to the Library's Operating Budget, a $460,227 (2%) increase in county funding for the System's 37 libraries.

Libraries add so much to my life. I have checked the ways I use the library:

- Book borrowing
- CD, DVD, VHS, Blu-Ray borrowing
- Internet /Wi-Fi use
- Computer use
 - Computer training
 - Career search
 - Business research
- Family programs
- Music Downloads
- Book Downloads
- Research
- Community meeting rooms
- Lectures
- Database searches
- Other: _____

Here are some very impressive statistics about Buffalo & Erie County Public Libraries: from January 1, 2015 to September 30, 2015 System wide...

- 5.38 million total items (books and media) have been borrowed;
- 457,722 million items were downloaded;
- 134,484 programming participants;
- 569,403 public access computer sessions have been logged;
- 182,762 patron Wi-Fi logins were counted;
- 2.42 million patron visits were counted.

Our public libraries provide support to families, refugee populations, schools, community groups and businesses. For pre-school-aged children, libraries regularly provide opportunities for enrichment in an inspiring environment dedicated to creativity and free inquiry. For adult learners, job seekers, and entrepreneurs, libraries provide links to workforce development, technology training and lifelong intellectual enrichment. Public libraries are for everyone!

Thank you in advance for continuing your commitment to our libraries. Thank you for supporting the Erie County Executive's 2016 proposed budget to keep library doors open, maintain open hours, provide all ages with literacy programming, and make materials, resources and databases available to the community in an effort to build a stronger, more knowledgeable region.

Our public libraries provide support to families, refugee populations, schools, community groups and businesses. For pre-school-aged children, libraries regularly provide opportunities for enrichment in an inspiring environment dedicated to creativity and free inquiry. For adult learners, job seekers, and entrepreneurs, libraries provide links to workforce development, technology training and lifelong intellectual enrichment. Public libraries are for everyone!

Thank you in advance for continuing your commitment to our libraries. Thank you for supporting the Erie County Executive's 2016 proposed budget to keep library doors open, maintain open hours, provide all ages with literacy programming, and make materials, resources and databases available to the community in an effort to build a stronger, more knowledgeable region.

Dear Erie County Legislator Mills,

I am a proud user of the Concord Public Library, a member library in the Buffalo & Erie County Public Library System. I want to express my appreciation to you for your past support of library services and urge you to vote in favor of the County Executive's 2016 proposed $23,474,134 allocation to the Library's Operating Budget, a $460,227 (2%) increase in county funding for the System's 37 libraries.

Libraries add so much to my life. I have checked the ways I use the library:

- Book borrowing
- CD, DVD, VHS, Blu-Ray borrowing
- Internet /Wi-Fi use
- Computer use
- Computer training
- Career search
- Business research
- Family programs
- Music Downloads
- Book Downloads

Here are some very impressive statistics about Buffalo & Erie County Public Libraries: from January 1, 2015 to September 30, 2015 System wide...

- 5.38 million total items (books and media) have been borrowed;
- 457,722 million items were downloaded;
- 134,484 programming participants;
- 569,403 public access computer sessions have been logged;
- 182,762 patron Wi-Fi logins were counted;
- 2.42 million patron visits were counted.

Our public libraries provide support to families, refugee populations, schools, community groups and businesses. For pre-school-aged children, libraries regularly provide opportunities for enrichment in an inspiring environment dedicated to creativity and free inquiry. For adult learners, job seekers, and entrepreneurs, libraries provide links to workforce development, technology training and lifelong intellectual enrichment. Public libraries are for everyone!

Thank you in advance for continuing your commitment to our libraries. Thank you for supporting the Erie County Executive's 2016 proposed budget to keep library doors open, maintain open hours, provide all ages with literacy programming, and make materials, resources and databases available to the community in an effort to build a stronger, more knowledgeable region.
