COUNTY OF ERIE
LOCAL LAW INTRO. No. 12-1 - 2016
LOCAL LAW No.____ - 2016

A LOCAL LAW amending Local Law No. 1-1959, constituting the Erie County Charter, as amended, in relation to recommendations made by the Erie County Charter Revision Commission, duly organized pursuant to Local Law No. 5-2015.

BE IT ENACTED BY THE LEGISLATURE OF THE COUNTY OF ERIE AS FOLLOWS:

Section 1.
LEGISLATIVE INTENT. The Erie County Legislature approved Local Law No. 5-2015 creating the Charter Revision Commission for the express purpose of reviewing the Erie County Charter and the Administrative Code and to make recommendations on whether or not these documents should be amended to facilitate the more effective delivery of services to the public and to better coordinate the functions between departments and agencies of the County and the various local governments. The Legislature has reviewed all the recommendations and comments of the Charter Revision Commission, other interested policy organizations, members of the public, the Erie County Legislature and other elected officials. The Legislature held and participated in numerous public hearings to receive public input about changes to the Charter. The Legislature has considered all relevant information and input and does hereby determine that certain sections of the Erie County Charter, Local Law 1-1959 (as amended) shall be amended to modernize the Charter and to enhance the fiscal oversight and financial stability of the County.

Additions to the Erie County Charter are reflected by underlining.
Deletions to the Erie County Charter are reflected by ~~strikethroughs~~.

Section 106. Legislative Districts, continued. The fifteen legislative districts as previously bounded and described by Local Law No. 4-2002, shall continue as such for the limited purpose of continuing in office the legislators presently elected from said districts and shall cease to exist as such on January 1, 2012. For the purpose of the general election of 2011 and all other purposes, except as herein before provided, the county of Erie is divided into eleven districts, described as contained in section one hundred five herein.

Section 106 Amended by Local Law No. 1-2010.

Section 3.
Article 1 Section 113 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:
311. Veterans' service agency. There shall be in the office of the County Executive a County Veterans' Service Agency, headed by a director of veterans' services who shall be appointed by and serve at the pleasure of the County Executive. Except as otherwise provided in this Charter, the Director of the County Veterans' Service Agency shall have all the powers and duties of a County Director and a County Service Officer, as those terms are used in article 17 of the NYS executive law and section 800 of the NYS County Law, in relation to veterans' affairs generally and, in conjunction with the division of military and naval affairs and other responsible state agencies, in providing information, support and assistance to members of the armed forces, including members of the reserve components thereof and members of the organized militia ordered into active duty, and veterans, who are residents of this state, and their families, with respect to (1) matters pertaining to educational training and retraining services and facilities, (2) health, medical and rehabilitation services and facilities, (3) provisions of federal, state and local laws and regulations affording special rights and privileges to members of the armed forces and ~~war~~ veterans and their families, (4) employment and re-employment services, and (5) obtaining any benefits and awards to which they may be entitled under any federal, state or local legislation. The director shall perform such additional and related duties as may be proscribed by law~~,~~ or by the county executive ~~or by resolution of the county legislature~~.

Section 4.
Article 1 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended by adding a new Article 1A as follows:
Article 1A - Ethics - Charter

Section	1-A-01.	Ethical Governance.
	1-A-02.	Erie County Code of Ethics Continued, in part.
	1-A-03.	Definitions.
	1-A-04.	Erie County Board of Ethics.
	1-A-05.	Penalties.
	1-A-06.	Limits on Political Donations.
	1-A-07.	Fair and Equal Treatment.
	1-A-08.	Resignation upon Conviction.
	1-A-09.	Interest in Appointments.

1-A-01. Ethical Governance. The proper operation of the County requires that public officials and employees be independent, impartial, and responsible to the people; that public offices not be used for personal gain; and that the public have confidence in the integrity of its government. In recognition of these goals, this Article applies to all officials and employees, whether elected or appointed, paid or unpaid. The purpose of this Article is to establish ethical standards of conduct for all such officials and employees by setting forth those facts or actions that are incompatible with the best interests of the County.

1-A-02. Erie County Code of Ethics Continued, in part. The Erie County Code of Ethics as established by Local Law number ten of nineteen hundred eight-nine is continued in its entirety except for Sections 9 and 10, which are repealed thirty days after this Article takes effect. The Legislature may only amend the Erie County Code of Ethics (a) by passing a local law in reaction to a recommendation from the Board of Ethics to amend the Code of Ethics as provided for in this Article; or (b) by passing a local law subject to referendum.

1-A-03. Definitions.
"Board of Ethics" as it is used within this Article, in the Erie County Code of Ethics, and in any other Local Law means the Erie County Board of Ethics established pursuant to Section 4 of this Article. The Board of Ethics established by this Article succeeds the Board of Ethics established by Local Law number ten of nineteen hundred eight-nine.
"Reporting individual" means any individual required to report an annual statement of financial disclosure under the Erie County Code of Ethics.
"Business entity" means any partnership, corporation, LLC or other legal entity that is organized with the purpose of profit.

1-A-04. Erie County Board of Ethics. There shall be an Erie County Board of Ethics as established in this Section.

a. Board of Ethics to Have Eighteen Members; Terms of Office. The Board of Ethics shall consist of eighteen members who shall serve six-year terms of office, three such terms expiring each year; provided that of the initial eighteen members appointed to the Board of Ethics three shall be appointed to one year terms; three shall be appointed to two year terms; three shall be appointed to three year terms; three shall be appointed to four year terms; three shall be appointed to five year terms; and three shall be appointed to six year terms. The lengths of the terms of the eighteen initial members of the Board of Ethics shall be determined by drawing lots. No member shall be an elected official, a political party officer, a member of a political party committee, or have substantial business interests with the County of Erie. All members shall reside in Erie County. All members shall serve without compensation, but may be reimbursed for reasonable and necessary expenses approved by the County Legislature.
b. Initial Appointment of Board Members. The Board of Ethics shall consist of eighteen members appointed by the County Executive upon legislative confirmation.
c. Subsequent Appointments due to Vacancy. In the event that a vacancy arises with respect to a member of the Board of Ethics, whether by expiration of term or for any other reason, the vacancy shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment.
d. Chair. The members shall elect a chair from among themselves. The chair shall serve a two-year term.
e. Repository of Financial Disclosure Statements. The board shall be the repository for completed annual statements of financial disclosure required under the Erie County Code of Ethics.
f. Powers and Duties. The Board of Ethics shall have all the powers and duties ascribed to a Board of Ethics by article eighteen of the General Municipal Law. In addition, the Board of Ethics shall have the following powers and duties:
    i) To render advisory opinions. Any county officer or employee may make written request to the Board to render an advisory opinion as to any question concerning the application of the Erie County Code of Ethics or article eighteen of the General Municipal Law to his or her own affairs, or if he be the head of a county department, administrative unit, or other agency of the County, the affairs of any of his or her subordinates. The Board shall disclose its opinion only to the person who has requested it or in relation to whose affairs the opinion has been requested. To the extent that it can do so without disclosing the identity of the person who has requested the opinion or in relation to whose affairs the opinion has been requested, and subject to such omissions as may be appropriate to protect personal privacy, the Board shall make its opinions a matter of public record.

ii) To adopt and amend such rules of procedure as are appropriate.

iii) To propose recommendations of amendments to the Erie County Code of Ethics. The Legislature shall adopt, amend, or reject each recommendation received from the Board of Ethics within ninety days of receipt.

iv) To request and receive legal, administrative, or other assistance from other officers of county government. The County Executive, the County Attorney, the District Attorney, and the County Legislature will make available any support staff necessary for the Board of Ethics to carry out its duties and functions.

v) To perform such functions as may from time to time be prescribed by the County Legislature.

1-A-05. Penalties.

a. Civil Penalties for Failure to File. Any person required to file an annual financial disclosure statement pursuant to the Erie County Code of Ethics who has not so filed at the end of one week after the required filing date shall be subject to a fine of not less than two hundred fifty dollars and not to exceed one thousand dollars. In determining the amount of the fine, the Board of Ethics shall consider factors, including, but not limited to, the person's failure in prior years to file a report in a timely manner, and the length of the delay in filing. The Board of Ethics may waive a fine entirely if a person establishes that the failure to file a report in a timely manner was due to illness, injury, or other hardship. Assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the board of ethics.

b. Referral for Prosecution. An individual who knowingly and intentionally makes a false statement or gives information which such individual knows or should have known to be false on an annual statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to the Erie County Code of Ethics shall be referred to the District Attorney's Office for prosecution.

c. Violations Other than Failure to File. A reporting individual who files an annual statement of financial disclosure which results in a violation of the Code of Ethics, other than a violation of subsection (a) or (b) of this section, or who otherwise violates the Code of Ethics or this Article shall be assessed a civil penalty in an amount not less than five hundred dollars but not to exceed two thousand dollars in addition to the value of any gift, compensation, or benefit received in connection with such violation. Assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the Erie County Board of Ethics.

d. Limits on Penalties. A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed hereunder in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported hereunder is incorrect unless such reported information is knowingly understated. No other civil penalty may be imposed for failure to file or for false filing of such statement, except that the appointing authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law.

The Erie County Board of Ethics shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals relating to the assessment of the civil penalties herein authorized. Such rules shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in article three of the State Administrative Procedure Act but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or scope. Assessment of a civil penalty shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within thirty days of imposition. Upon becoming final the assessment shall be subject to review at the instance of the affected reporting individual in a proceeding commenced against the Erie County Board of Ethics, pursuant to article seventy-eight of the Civil Practice Law and Rules.

1-A-06. Limits on Political Donations.

a) Limits on Political Donations from Partnerships, Corporations, LLCs, or Other Business Entities. No candidate for an elective county office shall knowingly solicit or accept political donations in excess of five thousand dollars from any single partnership, corporation, LLC, or other business entity during the course of a single calendar year. No partnership, corporation, LLC, or other business entity shall knowingly offer or make political donations in excess of five thousand dollars to any single candidate for elective county offices during the course of a single calendar year. If a partnership, corporation, LLC, or other business entity makes political donations in excess of five thousand dollars to a single candidate for elective county offices during the course of a single calendar year, such partnership, corporation, LLC, or other business entity shall request pro-rata refunds from such candidates for elective county offices so that net contributions by such partnership, corporation, LLC, or other business entity does not exceed five thousand dollars per candidate within one calendar year. Candidates who receive a valid request for a pro-rata refund shall refund the requested amount within fourteen days provided a refund may be made later than fourteen days if there are insufficient funds in the candidate's account. However, if this is the case, all subsequently received donations from partnerships, corporations, LLCs, or other business entities shall be allocated solely to the issuance of such refunds until all valid refund requests are fully discharged.

b) Refunds and Penalties. Any donation knowingly received in violation of (a) or (b) must be refunded so as to ensure compliance with this Section without undue delay. Notwithstanding subsection 5(d) of this Article, any person who knowingly fails to comply with this Section shall be liable for a civil penalty not to exceed one thousand dollars or treble the amount donated or accepted over and above the amounts authorized by this Section, whichever is greater. In addition to any other penalty contained in any other provision of law, any person who shall knowingly and intentionally violate this Section may be fired, suspended or removed from office or employment in a manner provided by law.

c) Not Retroactive. The limits established in this Section and the associated penalties and requirement to issue refunds only apply to political donations solicited, accepted, offered, or made after this Article takes effect.

1-A-07. Fair and Equal Treatment. No county official or employee shall be terminated, appointed, promoted, reduced, or in any way favored or discriminated against because of sex, race, national origin, sexual orientation, gender identity, or religious affiliation or opinions. This section shall not be interpreted to prohibit the County from operating a bona fide affirmative action program.

1-A-08. Resignation upon Conviction. Any official appointed by the County Executive or the Legislature convicted of a felony or crime of moral turpitude, related or unrelated to his or her position, is deemed to resign his or her position effective immediately upon conviction subject to all civil service law, rules, and regulations.

Section 6.
Article 2 Section 201 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:
Section 201. County legislature constituted. The county legislature shall be composed of eleven members who shall be elected one from each of the eleven legislative districts ~~set forth in section one hundred five hereof~~. The county legislators representing the eleven districts heretofore or herein created, as the case may be, when lawfully convened shall constitute the county legislature which shall be the legislative and governing body of the county.

Section 7.
Article 2 Section 202.3 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:
Section 202.3. Increasing the salaries of county elected officials. The Erie county legislature is hereby prohibited from changing the salary of any county elected official, excluding the district attorney, except in accordance with the following procedure:

1. Prior to acting upon the citizens salary review commission's biennial report, the county legislature shall hold at least one public hearing to solicit public input on said commission's recommendations.
2. Notices of all such public hearings shall be published at least once in the official newspaper or newspapers of the county and in such other newspapers as the county legislature may direct. At least five days but not more than ten days shall elapse between the first publication of such notice and the date specified for the hearing.
3. The county legislature shall have one year from the date said recommendations are submitted to adopt, modify, or reject the recommendations of the citizens salary review commission.
4. Any salaries approved by the county legislature in excess of those recommended by the citizens salary review commission shall be approved by a vote of at least two thirds of all the members of the county legislature.
5. The County Legislature shall specifically establish the effective date of any adjustments in the salaries of elected county officials. No increase in the salary of an elected official shall be permitted for any fiscal year in which there is an increase in the real property full value tax ~~levy~~ rate over the real property full value tax ~~levy~~ rate of the previous fiscal year. ~~Amended by Local Law No. 1 1992.~~
6. The county legislature's review of salaries as set forth above shall occur during every even year starting with nineteen hundred eighty six. No increase in the salary of any county elected official shall take effect until the current term of office of the elected official that is to receive an increase in salary has ended.

Section 8.
Article 2 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended by adding a new section 202.4 as follows:
Section 202.4. Allocation of funds for the Erie County Legislature. The fund appropriated for the County Legislature in the annual budget, exclusive of the funds for the Office of the Clerk of the County Legislature, shall be allocated to the majority and minority in the proportion that the majority members of the Legislature will bear to the total number of legislators, provided that the majority will not receive more than 65 percent of the funds appropriated for the County Legislature in the annual budget, exclusive of the funds for the Office of the Clerk of the County Legislature, and the proportion that the minority members of the Legislature will bear to the total number of legislators, provided that the minority will not receive less than 35 percent of the funds appropriated for the County Legislature in the annual budget, exclusive of the funds for the Office of the Clerk of the County Legislature, as of the commencement of the fiscal year for which the budget is adopted. The County Legislature shall adopt an ordinance or resolution to effect the allocation in December of each year where necessary. Notwithstanding anything else to the contrary, this section may only be altered, amended, repealed or superseded by nine affirmative votes of the County Legislature.

Section 9.
Article 2 Section 204 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:
Section 204. Form and procedure. Every local law shall be entitled "A local law" (amending etcetera or otherwise as the case may be). If a local law amends a specific state statute or specific local law, the matter to be eliminated shall be enclosed in brackets or parentheses and the new matter underscored or italicized.

1. The Legislature shall hold a public hearing 5-days before a local law, that is not certified as to the necessity of its immediate passage, can be put to a vote; acceptable public notice for this type of public hearing includes posting a notice on the county's official website and distribution of the notice to local media outlets.
2. Following a public hearing held pursuant to paragraph (1) or at any other time as the Legislature may by resolution request, the county attorney shall, no later than 14 days after such a public hearing or resolution, render to the Legislature an opinion as to whether the proposed local law or ordinance is of proper form, including, but not limited to, whether a proposed local law or ordinance is preempted by state or federal law; whether proposed local law or ordinance is written in a grammatically sound manner as to achieve its intent; and whether proposed local law or ordinance contains ambiguities which may frustrate its implementation and/or enforcement as intended.
   ~~Subsection a. Amended by Local Law No. 3-2006.~~

Section 10.
Article 2 Section 210 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:
Section 210. Independent Commission on Reapportionment.

1. A Commission on Reapportionment shall be established as soon as practicable after the availability of data from the census of 2020 to meet and evaluate existing legislative districts no later than 60 days after the necessary census data becomes available from the decennial federal census and reapportion them as necessary to meet established standards in state and federal law for equal and fair representation of all people in Erie County, keeping districts compact and contiguous while taking also into account existing town, city, village and election district boundaries and defining geographic features but giving no consideration to providing advantage to one or another political party. To the extent practicable, each new legislative district created by the Commission shall embrace territory substantially similar to the territory of a single existing legislative district.
   This Commission shall consist of eleven members who are County residents, are eligible to register to vote and are not public officers or employees.
2. To establish a pool from which members will be appointed, no later than three months prior to the anticipated first meeting of the Commission on Reapportionment, the County Executive shall widely solicit interest in serving on the Commission through such means as direct mail and e-mail contact with civic groups, public service announcements on radio and television and in daily and weekly newspapers, paid advertisement and announcement on the County website.
3. Initial appointments to the Commission on Reapportionment from the pool of interested parties gathered in this manner shall represent various geographic areas of the County and shall be made no later than 60 days after the census data becomes available, with two members appointed by the Legislature's Majority Leader and two members by the Legislature's Minority Leader.

4. These four appointed Commissioners shall select the additional seven Commission members from the pool previously established no later than 70 days after the census data becomes available. In the event that the additional seven Commission members are not appointed by the prescribed deadline, the appointment of the initial four members will no longer have force and effect and these members will no longer be eligible to serve on the Independent Commission on Reapportionment. The Majority and Minority Leaders will make alternative appointments in the manner prescribed in this section, and the four newly appointed members will appoint seven additional members so as to allow the Commission to convene no later than six months after the census data becomes available.
5. The Commission will reapportion in accordance with a process that allows timely input from the County Legislature and its members and the maximum of public participation and comment, and in accord with a calendar it adopts for itself after consideration of New York State Election Law that assures that elections in newly apportioned districts will be held in the year ending in "1" in every decade. The legislative districts created by the Commission shall be in effect for all elections held after the plan is filed and until a new plan is required and filed, unless amended by court order.

~~Advisory committee on reapportionment. During the first three months of the year following the year in which a federal decennial census is taken, an advisory committee shall be created to make recommendations to the county legislature on whether and how the county legislature should be reapportioned consistent with federal and state law. During the first two months the chairman of the county legislature shall give public notice of the intent to create such an advisory committee and shall invite interested persons and groups to inform the county legislature of their availability to serve on such an advisory committee. The county legislature shall appoint the advisory committee consisting of fifteen members, as follows: the chairman of the county legislature or his or her designee, the majority and minority leaders of the legislature or their designees, the commissioners of the board of elections or their designees, and ten residents of Erie county representing interested community groups, five of whom shall be appointed by the majority leader and five of whom shall be appointed by the minority leader. The chairman of the advisory committee shall be appointed by the chairman of the legislature. The advisory committee shall submit its final report to the county legislature within sixty days of its appointment or within sixty days of the official release of certified federal census data for Erie county, whichever is later. At any time prior to the expiration of this term, the county legislature may extend such term once, for a period not to exceed thirty days.~~
~~Amended by Local Law No. 7 1981.~~

Section 1001. Department of environment and planning; commissioner; qualifications.
1002. Powers and duties of commissioner.
1003. County environmental quality code.
1004. Erie County Environmental Management Council.

Section 18.
Article 10 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended by adding a new Section 1004 as follows:
Section 1004. Erie County Environmental Management Council

1004.1 Declaration of policy.

1004.2 Establishment of the Erie County Environmental Management Council; membership.

1004.3. Powers, duties and functions of the council.

1004.4 Compensation and expenses.

~~1004.5. Effective date.~~

Section 1004.1. Declaration of Policy. The Legislature hereby finds and declares that the management and conservation of our environment is essential to the health and well-being of the people of the county. Local understanding of the importance of all aspects of the environment is necessary for the most wise and balanced use of our natural resources. Local and inter municipal participation is imperative in the planning and control of activities which influence the ecological balance of the county and the natural and functional beauty of its surroundings.
The Legislature, therefore, deems it in the best interest of the County that an Erie County Environmental Management Council be responsible for reviewing and advising local and state government on present and proposed methods and plans for preserving, enhancing, and using the environment for the protection and benefit of all the people, and for fostering unified action on environmental problems among local governments and among public and private agencies and organizations operative within the County.

Section 1004.2. Establishment of the Erie County Environmental Management Council; membership. There is hereby established, pursuant to article 47 of New York State Environmental Conservation Law and New York Municipal Home Rule Law, a county environmental management council, to be known as the Erie County Environmental Management Council, hereinafter called the Council. The Council shall be appointed by the County Executive, subject to the confirmation of the Legislature, and shall consist of twelve members at large and one member recommended to the County Executive by and from each town, village or city environmental or conservation management council established by the official governing body of such town, village or city. The term of all members shall be two years. Vacancies on the Council shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment except that a vacancy occurring through circumstances other than by expiration of term of office shall be filled only for the remainder of the unexpired term. In addition, the Commissioner of Environment and Planning, and the Commissioner of Health, shall be ex officio voting members of the Council.

The County Executive shall appoint one member of the Council as chairman thereof. The Council shall meet at least four times each year. The Council shall adopt rules and procedures for its meetings, shall keep accurate records of its meetings and activities, and shall file the annual report as provided in section sixteen hundred twenty two of this law.
Amended by Local Law No. 2 1977.
Amended by Local Law No. 16 1974.
Amended by Local Law No. 1 1972.

Section 1004. 3. Powers, duties and functions of the Council. The Council shall review and investigate ecologically sound methods of planning the use of the County's resources. In conjunction with the Deputy Commissioner of Environmental Compliance it shall prepare an annual recommendations report based on that investigation, and transmit same to the County Executive and the Legislature. The report shall include a section on the needs of those living in areas of urban or rural poverty where the impact of environmental degradation may be more severe.
The Council shall keep an index of all open areas within the county, with the plan of obtaining information pertinent to sound ecological utilization of such areas including land owned by any municipality within the county. It shall keep an index of all open marsh lands, swamps, and all other wet lands in a like manner, and may recommend a program for their ecologically suitable utilization.
The Council shall develop and maintain an inventory of natural resources within the county and such other environmental information as may be appropriate. Said inventory shall include wetlands and open spaces and may include, but not be limited to, factors relating to geology, soils, slope, water resources, vegetation, wildlife habitat unique natural areas, and scenic, historic, and archaeological sites.
The Council shall advise and make recommendations to the County Executive and the legislature as they may director as may be deemed appropriate on matters affecting the preservation development, and use of the natural and human made features and conditions of the County insofar as they have a bearing on environmental quality and on the effects of human activities and development on environmental quality.
The Council shall develop, recommend and assist in the conduct of a program of public information in the County which shall be designed to increase understanding of the environmental problems and issues and to foster support for their solutions.

The Council shall develop, recommend and assist in the conduct of a program to improve the coordination and effectiveness of public and private projects and activities in the County in accord with the purposes of this law, working in cooperation with the environmental or conservation commissions in the cities, towns, and villages within the county and with other public and private agencies, focusing particularly on those matters relating to environmental quality which require intergovernmental action.

The Council shall maintain liaison with the county planning board, local and regional planning agencies, regional water resources planning and development boards, environmental management councils or their equivalents in counties adjacent to the County of Erie, and other such public and private regional bodies in the United States and Canada affecting the conservation of environmental quality, with the purpose of improving coordination of planning and activities.

Section 1004.4. Compensation and expenses. Unless otherwise provided by recommendations of the County Executive and resolution of the Legislature, the members of the Council shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for their expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder.
~~Section 1004.5. Effective date. This local law shall take effect immediately.~~

Article 22-A - Erie County Environmental Management Council - Charter

~~Section 22-A-01. Declaration of policy.~~
~~22-A-02. Establishment of the Erie county environmental management council; membership.~~
~~22-A-03. Powers, duties and functions of the council.~~
~~22-A-04. Compensation and expenses.~~
~~22-A-05. Effective date.~~

~~Section 22-A-01. Declaration of policy. The legislature hereby finds and declares that the management and conservation of our environment is essential to the health and well being of the people of the county. Local understanding of the importance of all aspects of the environment is necessary for the most wise and balanced use of our natural resources. Local and inter municipal~~ participation is imperative in the planning and control of activities which influence the ecological balance of the county and the natural and functional beauty of its surroundings.

The legislature, therefore, deems it in the best interest of the county that a county environmental management council be responsible for reviewing and advising local and state government on present and proposed methods and plans for preserving, enhancing, and using the environment for the protection and benefit of all the people, and for fostering unified action on environmental problems among local governments and among public and private agencies and organizations operative within the county.
Section 22-A-02. Establishment of the Erie county environmental management council; membership. There is hereby established, pursuant to article nineteen of the conservation law and the municipal home rule, a county environmental management council, to be known as the Erie county environmental management council, hereinafter called the council. The council shall be appointed by the county executive, subject to the confirmation of the legislature, and shall consist of twelve members at large and one member recommended to the county executive by and from each town, village or city environmental or conservation management council established by the official governing body of such town, village or city. The term of all members shall be two years. Vacancies on the council shall be filled in the same manner as the original appointment except that a vacancy occurring through circumstances other than by expiration of term of office shall be filled only for the remainder of the unexpired term. In addition, the commissioner of environment and planning, the commissioner of health, and are representative of the Erie and Niagara counties regional planning board shall be ex officio voting members of the council.
The county executive shall appoint one member of the council as chairman thereof. The council shall meet at least four times each year. The council shall adopt rules and procedures for its meetings, shall keep accurate records of its meetings and activities, and shall file the annual report and plan as provided in section sixteen hundred twenty two of this law.
Amended by Local Law No. 2 1977.
Amended by Local Law No. 16 1974.
Amended by Local Law No. 1 1972.
Section 22-A-03. Powers, duties and functions of the council. The council shall review the state of the county environment as a whole, and shall present a preliminary report of its findings to the county executive and the legislature on or before September first, nineteen hundred seventy one and a full report annually thereafter. The council shall cooperate with the planning commissioner in annually preparing a plan for the protection of the county's environment and the management of its natural resources, and shall transmit it to the county executive and the legislature. The council shall investigate and recommend to the county executive and the legislature ecologically sound methods of planning the use of the county's resources.
The council shall investigate all of the operations of county government in its various departments with respect to the environment and ecology of the county, analyze such investigation, and within three months after its creation report to the county executive and the legislature the feasibility and the advisability of creating in the county of Erie a department of environmental conservation to which all of the presently scattered activities with respect to the environment and ecology would be transferred for administration in a manner similar to that of the New York state department of environmental conservation.
The council shall prepare and keep current an index of all open areas within the county, including but not limited to those open land areas, scenic and natural features, natural areas,

~~shorelines, marshlands, swamps, and other wetlands in the county and including such lands owned by any municipality within the county, for the purpose of obtaining information pertinent to the preservation, enhancement, and use of such areas. The council may recommend to the county executive and legislature a program for the protection, preservation, and use of such areas.~~

~~The council shall maintain liaison with local and regional planning agencies, regional water resources planning and development boards, environmental management councils or their equivalents in counties adjacent to the county of Erie, and other such public and private regional bodies in the United States and Canada affecting the conservation of environmental quality, with the purpose of improving coordination of planning and activities.~~

~~To assist in carrying out the aforementioned functions the council may:~~

- ~~a. Conduct or recommend studies, surveys and inventories as are in accord with the general purposes of this law, and do so with appropriate coordination with existing or prospective work of a similar nature performed by federal, state, county, municipal, or private agencies and organizations.~~
- ~~b. Cooperate with and assist such other governmental or non governmental boards or organizations in the preparation of plans or reports or the review of proposals or applications as the county executive or legislature may direct.~~
- ~~c. Advertise, prepare, print, and distribute books, maps, charts, and pamphlets if in its judgment and within appropriations therefor it deems them necessary for its work.~~
- ~~d. Hold public and private hearings for specified purpose of this law.~~
- ~~e. Report its findings to the county executive, county legislature, public and private agencies and organizations, and interested private citizens.~~

~~Section 22-A-04. Compensation and expenses. Unless otherwise provided by recommendations of the county executive and resolution of the legislature, the members of the council shall receive no compensation for their services but shall be reimbursed for their expenses actually and necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties hereunder.~~

Section 22--~~C~~B-01. Legislative declaration of policy. It is hereby declared to be the public policy of Erie County, New York, to take all proper measures to preserve and strengthen the family unit and to aid in the establishment of a nurturing environment to encourage the proper development of children.

To further this policy the Erie county government provides evaluation, treatment and preventative services to the children and families of Erie County.

The Erie county legislature finds that this policy and these services can be more effectively administered and efficiently delivered by systematic coordination among the local government, public voluntary system of social, educational, health, mental health and other supportive and rehabilitative services to children and families.

The services system can be strengthened by:

1. Fostering cooperation among local government and both public and voluntary agencies to provide better coordination supervision of services to children and families.
2. Eliminating duplication of services where possible and maximizing service provisions through judicious use of tax dollars, grants and other funding mechanisms as may become available.
3. Stressing more meaningful accountability by providers, in all sectors, regarding the quality and quantity of services provided to children and families.
4. Improving methods of ascertaining community needs and setting program goals as they relate to services for children and families.

Section 22--~~C~~B -02. Establishment, powers and duties. There is hereby created, the Erie county community coordinating council on children and families, hereafter called council. The council shall:

1. Develop a methodology to evaluate, monitor and ascertain the effectiveness of current programs in children's services.
2. Identify problems and deficiencies in existing services and recommend corrective action.
3. Improve coordination of program and fiscal resources within the children's services system.
4. Act as a liaison between county governmental units, public voluntary programs and the state and federal government, fostering better communication between all involved.
5. Review and resolve administrative, and where appropriate, regulatory differences between agencies.
6. Develop long range plans to improve services to children and families. This should be accomplished through a five year comprehensive service plan similar to those utilized by county departments.
7. Act as a forum for community discussion of issues pertaining to services for children and families.
8. Carry out any and all activities deemed necessary to accomplish the goals of the council as stated herein.

Section 22--~~C~~B -03. Membership; meetings. The council shall consist of the following members: the Erie county commissioners of youth, social services, health and mental health, the director of the office for the disabled and the chief clerk from the Erie county family court, three consumer/client representatives, and five representatives from local charitable and/or community based organizations concerned with children and families, the director of the office of probation, one representative from a suburban school district and two representatives from the youth planning council of Buffalo and the president of the united way agency executives association, a representative of the western New York school board association and four members of the business community.

The legislature shall appoint the eight community representatives and two representatives of the business community as follows: six to be named by the majority and four to be named by the minority. Five of these members shall serve two year terms and five shall serve three year terms. These members can only be reappointed once.
The county executive shall appoint the one representative from a suburban school district and the two representatives from the youth planning council of Buffalo and the president of the united way agency executives association, a representative of the western New York school board association and two representatives of the business community.
The chair shall be appointed by the county executive and confirmed by the legislature, and shall not be one of the twenty four members previously stated.
The council shall have the authority to appoint ad hoc council members to advise them, as they may deem necessary.
The council shall have at least four meetings each year with at least one meeting to be in each quarter of the year. The council shall adopt rules and procedures for its meetings; shall keep accurate records of its meetings and activities, and shall file an annual report with the county legislature and the county executive.
The council shall convene for its first meeting in the quarter of the year in which they are appointed. The council shall present its first report to the legislature before adoption of the annual budget in the year they are appointed, and every year thereafter on June first.
The annual report shall include the methodology for acquiring accurate statistics, which the council will use to evaluate and plan for services. Also, they should report any short term budget recommendations for the nineteen hundred ninety three budget.
The council shall then make yearly budget recommendations and five year service plans.

Section 22-~~C~~B-04. The county executive. The county executive shall require any county department, division, board, council, committee, authority or agency, or other unit or any agency or organization receiving county funding, to provide such facilities, assistance and data as will enable the commission to properly effectuate its powers and duties under this article.

Section 22-~~C~~B-05. Staff. The council shall be provided with a coordinator, under the auspices of the county executive to serve the council in capacities which include managing the correspondence of the council; providing a schedule of meeting dates; distributing a calendar of information on programs and events members may be interested in attending. The coordinator shall also serve as research assistant, and coordinate and implement the use of the monitoring mechanism, so that the council shall have service and program data to use in its planning efforts. The council and its coordinator shall also have access to secretarial staff as needed to complete its tasks.

~~Section 22- CB -06. Effective date. This law shall take effect immediately~~.
Amended by Local Law No. 3 1992.
Amended by Local Law No. 7 1990.

Added by Local Law No. 4 1988.
Article 22-C was formerly numbered article 23-C, which was formerly numbered Article XVI-F.

Section 37.
Article 25 Section 2503 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:
Section 2503. Tentative budget and capital program by county executive. On or before the 15th day of October of each year the county executive shall submit to the county legislature a tentative budget for the ensuing fiscal year, a financial forecast for the ~~two (2)~~ four (4) subsequent years, a capital program for the next six (6) fiscal years, and an accompanying message.

Section 38.
Article 25 Section 2505 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:
Section 2505. Fund balance

c. If the proposed county budget appropriates unassigned fund balance in the General Fund reducing the unassigned General Fund fund balance below five percent as described in subsection (b), the county executive shall present a separate resolution to the county Legislature parallel with the proposed county budget requesting approval of the appropriation. The county may only approve unassigned General Fund fund balance below the five percent level upon a two-thirds supermajority vote of the county legislature. A budget that is approved without a vote of the county legislature shall not appropriate any fund balance revenue in the General Fund in excess of the amount provided in this subsection. The county executive's tentative budget shall indicate equivalent deletions in the tentative budget that shall be executed if the use of fund balance permitted by this paragraph is not approved by the county legislature.

Section 39.
Article 25 Section 2506 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:
Section 2506. Revenue and certain expense projections reviewed
On or before the 1st day of October the county executive shall submit to the comptroller all revenue estimates and expenditure estimates for Medicaid, public assistance, and pension contributions and health care insurance costs for county employees to be used in the proposed budget. If not otherwise available, property tax revenue estimates shall include a maximum and minimum levy amount, which shall be used in preparing the budget. The comptroller shall review all revenue estimates and expenditure estimates for Medicaid, public assistance and pension contributions and health care insurance costs for county employees to be used in the proposed tentative budget prepared by the county executive and submit to the legislature in writing by the 15th of October a report indicating whether or not such estimates are suitable estimates for the upcoming fiscal year. Should the comptroller determine that any such revenue or expenditure estimate is not suitable for the upcoming fiscal year, the Legislature, upon notice from the comptroller may revise any such revenue estimate downward upon a two-thirds majority vote and may revise any such expenditure estimate upward by a majority vote. The legislature shall not revise any such revenue estimate upward.

Section 40.
Article 25 Section 2507 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:

Section 2507. Budget controls.

b. The county executive shall maintain control at all times over the expenditures of every department or other administrative unit, officer, employee and financial activity of the county, except for the departments overseen by the independently elected officials (clerk, comptroller, district attorney and sheriff) who shall have the power to manage their departments within the parameters of the adopted budget. For such purpose, the county executive may, among other things, prescribe quotas and allotments, and no department or other administrative unit, officer, employee or financial activity of the county, except for the independently elected officials (clerk, comptroller, district attorney and sheriff), shall encumber its appropriation in an amount in excess of that allowed by any quota or allotment so prescribed. Actions taken by independently elected officials (Clerk, Comptroller, District Attorney and Sheriff) within the parameters of the adopted budget shall be approved by the County Executive and any other necessary department or office within seven days. The county executive may request that the legislature impose quotas, allotments or other cost control measures on the independently elected officials (clerk, comptroller, district attorney and sheriff) if the need arises. The legislature shall by resolution impose quotas, allotments or other cost control measures with a simple majority vote.

c. For any personnel position that has been budgeted, but that has remained unfilled for a time period of one year and one day, the position is eliminated and the appropriated budget funds shall be returned to the general fund of the County, provided that the County Legislature may, by resolution, extend this time period for an additional year upon the request of the appointing authority for the unfilled position. Further, additional one-year extensions can be granted any time prior to the elimination of the position. Time attributable to military service, family or medical leave, or disability, shall be excluded from the computation of the one year and one day time period. The County Legislature shall be timely informed of any such position and funds.

Section 41.

Article 25 Section 2508 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:

Section 2508. Adoption of budget.

b. If the budget is passed by the county legislature with no additions or increases, such budget shall be deemed to have been adopted without any further action by the county executive; if, however, the budget as passed by the county legislature contains any such additions or increases, the same shall be presented by the clerk of the legislature to the county executive not later than the second business day after the sixth of ~~Wednesday following the first Tuesday in~~ December, for his or her consideration of such additions or increases. If the county executive approves all additions and increases, he or she shall affix his or her signature to a statement thereof and return the budget and such statement to the clerk of the legislature. The budget, including the additions and increases as part thereof, shall then be deemed adopted.

c. The county executive may object to any one or more of such added or increased items, and in such case shall append to the budget a statement of the added or increased items to which he or she objects with the reasons for his or her objections, and shall return the budget with his or her objections to the clerk of the county legislature who shall present the same to the county Legislature on or before the seventh business day after the sixth of ~~Monday preceding the second Tuesday in~~ December. The county legislature shall thereupon enter the objections upon its journal and proceed to reconsider the additions and increases so objected to. If upon such reconsideration two thirds of all members of the county legislature vote to approve such additions and increases, or any of them, the budget with any additions and increases so approved, together with any additions and increases not so objected to by the county executive, shall be deemed adopted.

d. If a budget with additions or increases is not returned by the county executive to the clerk of the legislature with his or her objections on or before the seventh business day after the sixth of ~~Monday preceding the second Tuesday in~~ December, it shall be deemed adopted.
e. If a budget has not been adopted, as herein provided, on or before the tenth business day after the sixth ~~second Tuesday~~ of December in each year, then the tentative budget as submitted by the county executive, plus all additions and increases to which he or she has failed to object, shall be the budget for the ensuing fiscal year.

Section 42.
Article 26 of the Erie County Charter be amended by adding a new Section 2602A as follows:
Section 2602A. Amendments to contracts. No contract to which the County of Erie is a party, regardless of prior authorization granted to the County Executive or any other individual acting on behalf of the County, shall be amended to extend the term of the contract in excess of three months beyond the initial term, without the approval of the Legislature.

Section 43.
Article 26 Section 2608 of the Erie County Charter is hereby amended as follows:
Section 2608. Charter revision commission.
The Erie County Charter shall undergo a mandatory decennial review and the review shall commence by seating a Charter Review Commission by ~~January~~ October 15, 2024~~16~~, which shall report its recommendations to the Erie County Legislature no later than May 15, 2025~~16.~~ The Charter Revision Commission shall conduct at least one (1) public hearing prior to December 31, 2024. The Charter Revision Commission shall only be required to consider those proposals submitted to the Commission on or before April 15, 2025.

Section 44.
REFERENDUM. This Local Law shall be placed before the voters of Erie County at a general election to be held at least sixty (60) days after the adoption hereof.

Section 45.
EFFECTIVE DATE. If approved by the voters of Erie County, this Local Law shall take effect on the first day of January in the year immediately following such approval.

Section 46.
STEPS FOLLOWING EFFECTIVE DATE.

1. Notwithstanding any provisions contained in the Local Law to the contrary, the County Attorney shall insert gender neutral language in the Erie County Charter as follows:
   a. All references of "he" without a corresponding reference to "she" shall be stricken and replaced by "he or she".
   b. All references to "him" without a corresponding reference to "her" shall be stricken and replaced by "him or her".
