Section 1. Short title.

This local law may be cited as the Erie county code of ethics.

Section 2. Purpose and scope.

This code is enacted pursuant to article eighteen of the general municipal law in recognition of the policy of the state of New York and the county of Erie to maintain the highest standards of integrity in public service. It is the intent of this code to establish reporting standards at least as high as those established in chapter eight hundred thirteen of the laws of New York of nineteen hundred eighty-seven as well as the New York State Public Integrity Reform Act of 2011. It is the intent of the legislature to exercise all authority granted under subdivision three of section eight hundred twelve of the general municipal law. This code shall be in addition to all other restrictions, standards and provisions pertaining to the conduct of county officers and employees.

Section 3. Definitions.

As used in this code:

a. The term “candidate for elected office” shall mean a person who seeks to be designated, nominated or elected to the office of county executive, county legislator, district attorney, county clerk, sheriff, or county comptroller and who has (1) taken the action necessary to qualify himself for nomination for election or election or (2) received contributions or made expenditures with a view toward bringing about his nomination for election or election.

b. The terms “constituted committee” and “political committee” as used in subdivision (h) of this section shall have the same meanings as in section 14-100 of the election law.

c. The term “elected official” shall mean the county executive, a member of the county legislature, the district attorney, the sheriff, the county comptroller and the county clerk.

d. Except as otherwise provided in this code, the term “employee” shall mean any person who receives a salary or wage from the county of Erie, whether as an elected officer or employee.

e. The term “interest” means a direct or indirect pecuniary or material benefit accruing to a covered individual or his relative, as defined in this section.

f. The term “ministerial matter” shall have the same meaning as ascribed to such term by subdivision one of the section seventy-three of the public officers law.

g. For purposes of subdivision b of section eight of this local law, the term “officer or employee” shall mean the head or heads of any department, division, special district or other administrative unit of county government and their deputies and assistants, and their appointees and designees to any board of any organization or entity, not including advisory boards, or administrative unit of county government; and such others who hold policy making positions as annually determined by the appointing authority and set forth in a written instrument which shall be filed with the Erie county board of ethics during the month of February. Said designation of those officers or employees as policy making may be challenged by the designated officers or employees upon filing a written petition in opposition to such designation within thirty days from the filing of such designation with the Erie county board of ethics. The aforementioned board of ethics shall upon receipt of a petition in opposition promptly make a determination as to the petition’s merits upon a majority vote of a quorum of the board, and shall notify all interested parties within ten days of its decision. The term “officer or employee” shall also mean those individuals defined here who shall serve or have served at any time, regardless of duration, during the calendar year for which disclosure is sought regardless of whether they are affiliated with the county at the time the request for disclosure is made.

h. The term “political party official” shall mean: (i) any chairman of a county committee elected pursuant to section 2-112 of the election law, or his or her successor in office, who received compensation of expenses, or both, from constituted committee or political committee funds, or both, during the reporting period aggregating thirty thousand dollars or more; (ii) any person designated by the rules of a county committee as the “county leader” or “chairman of the executive committee”, or by whatever other title designated, who pursuant to the rules of a county committee or in actual practice, possesses or performs any or all of the following duties or roles, provided that such person received compensation or expenses, or both, from constituted committee or political committee funds, or both, during the reporting period aggregating thirty thousand dollars or more:

- (1) The principal political, executive and administrative officer of the county committee;
- (2) The power of general management over the affairs of the county committee;
- (3) The power to exercise the powers of the chairman of the county committee as provided for in the rules of the county committee;
- (4) The power to preside at all meetings of the county executive committee, if such committee is created by the rules of the county committee or if such committee exists de facto, or any other committee or subcommittee vested by such rules with, or having de facto, the power of general management over the affairs of the county committee at times when the county committee is not in actual session;
- (5) The power to call a meeting of the county committee or of any committee or subcommittee vested with the rights, powers, duties or privileges of the county committee pursuant to the rules of the county committee, for the purpose of filling an office at a special election in accordance with section 6-114 of the election law; for the purpose of filling a vacancy in accordance with section 6-116 of election law; or for purpose of filling a vacancy or vacancies in the county committee which exist by reason of an increase in the number of election districts within the county occasioned by a change of the boundaries of one or more election districts, taking effect after the election of its member, or for the purpose of determining the districts that the elected members shall represent until the next election at which such members of such committee are elected; provided, however, that in no event shall such power encompass the power of a chairperson of an assembly district committee or other district committee smaller than a county and created by the rules of a county committee, to call a meeting of such district committee for such purpose;
- (6) The power to direct the expenditure of funds by the county committee;
- (7) The power to procure from one or more bank accounts of the county committee the necessary funds to defray the expenses of the county committee.

i. The term “relative” shall mean such individual’s spouse, child, stepchild, stepparent, or any other person who is a direct descendant of the grandparents of the reporting individual or of the reporting individual’s spouse.

j. The term “services” shall mean the provision of work for a third party of any kind, including for a paying client, and shall include, without limitation, the provision of work related to accounting, agency, architecture, auditing, broker, computer, consulting, financial and investment planner, engineering, legal, lobbying, marketing, medical of any kind or nature, public relations, and real estate sales, but shall not include the provision of such work on a pro bono or volunteer basis where no remuneration is received for the work performed.

k. The term “spouse” shall mean the husband or wife of the reporting individual unless living separate and apart from the reporting individual pursuant to: (i) a judicial order, decree or judgment; or (ii) a legally binding separation agreement.

l. The term “unemancipated child” shall mean any son, daughter, stepson or stepdaughter who is under the age eighteen, unmarried and living in the household of the reporting individual.

Section 4. Financial disclosure.

Every elected official, employee, and each political party official subject to the reporting provisions of this section, shall, on or before the fifteenth day of April in each year, file with the Erie county board of ethics an annual statement of financial disclosure containing the information and in the form set forth in section seven of this local law. Such information shall relate to the calendar year immediately preceding the year of filing. Such disclosure shall be filed regardless of whether such individual is employed, a member of a board or commission, or otherwise affiliated with county at the time the request for disclosure is made.

a. A person who is required to file a disclosure statement and who timely filed with the internal revenue service an application for automatic extension of time in which to file an individual income tax return of the immediately preceding calendar or fiscal year shall be required to file such a financial disclosure statement on or before April fifteenth, but may, without subject to any civil penalty for on account of deficient statement, indicate with respect thereto is lacking but will be supplied in a supplementary statement of financial disclosure which shall be filed on or before the seventh day after the expiration of the period of such automatic extension of time in which to file such individual income tax return, provided that failure to file or timely file such supplementary statement of financial disclosure or the filing of an incomplete or deficient supplementary statement of financial disclosure shall be subject to the notice and penalty provisions of this section respecting annual statements of financial disclosure as if such supplementary statement were an annual statement.

b. A person who is required to file an annual financial disclosure statement with the New York State Joint Commission on Public Ethics, and who is granted additional time within which to file such a statement due to justifiable cause or undue hardship, in accordance with required rules and regulations on the subject adopted pursuant to applicable statutes, shall file such statement within the additional time granted.

c. (i) As used in this section, the terms “party”, “committee” (when used in conjunction with the term “party”), “designation”, “primary”, “primary election”, “nomination”, “independent nomination”, “ballot”, and “uncontested office” shall have the same meanings as those contained in section 1-104 of the election law.

(ii) Candidates for elected office who filed designating petitions for nomination at a primary election shall file such statement within seven days after the last day allowed by law for the filing of designating petitions naming them as candidates for the next succeeding primary elections.

(iii) Candidates for independent nomination for elected office who have not been designated by a party to receive a nomination shall file such statement within seven days after the last day allowed by law for filing of independent nominating petitions naming them as candidates for elected office in the next succeeding general or special election.

(iv) Candidates for elected office who receive the nomination of a party for a special election or who receive the nomination of the party other than at a primary election, whether or not for an uncontested office, shall file such statement within seven days after the date of the meeting of the party committee at which they are nominated.

d. Such statements shall be filed with the Erie county board of ethics as established by section five of this local law.

e. The Erie County Board of Ethics shall obtain from the Erie County Board of Elections, lists of all candidates for elected office, and from such lists shall determine and publish lists of those candidates who have not, within ten days after the required filing date for filing such statement, filed the statement required by this section.

f. Political party officials and any person required to file such statement who commences employment after April fifteenth of any year shall file such statement within thirty days after commencing employment or of taking the position of a political party official.

g. A person who is subject to the filing requirements of both subdivision two of section seventy-three-a of the public officers law and of this section may satisfy the requirements of this section by filing a copy of the statement filed pursuant to section seventy-three-a with the Erie County Board of Ethics on or before the filing deadline provided in such section seventy-three-a, notwithstanding the filing deadline otherwise imposed by this section.

h. For purposes of compliance with subdivision (g) of section eight hundred twelve of the general municipal law, any such filings for Erie County shall be made with the Erie County Board of Ethics.

i. An elected official who is simultaneously a candidate for elected office shall satisfy the filing deadline requirements of this section by complying only with the deadline applicable to one who holds such elected office.

j. A candidate whose name will appear on both a party designating petition and on independent nominating petition for the same office or who will be listed on the election ballot for the same office more than once shall satisfy the filing deadline requirements of this section by complying with the earliest applicable deadline only.

Section 5. Disclosure of interest in county business.

a. Any elected official, officer or employee or political party official, as defined in this local law, who has, or later acquires an interest, direct or indirect, in any actual or proposed contract with the county, shall publicly disclose the nature and extent of such interest in writing to the clerk of the county legislature and county attorney's office as soon as he has knowledge of such actual or prospective interest. Such written disclosure shall be time stamped by the clerk and received as an official record of the legislature of such body.

b. When a member of the Erie County legislature must take official action on a matter in which he has a substantial personal economic interest distinct from that of the general community or a substantial class of general community or his constituents, he should consider divesting himself of the interest, if he can do so without undue hardship. His decision in that regard shall be conclusive. Regardless of whether he divests himself of such interest, he shall disclose it in a concise written statement to the clerk of the legislature, who shall time stamp and receive such statement as an official record of the legislature, and county attorney's office, provided that divestment of such an interest need not be reported if more than one year has passed since such divestment. If he does not divest himself of that interest, he must abstain from participation in such action.

c. Annually by or on the fifteenth day of April, all elected county officials shall submit to the clerk of the legislature a list of all family members employed by any government organization in any capacity within the eight counties of Western New York. For the purposes of this section family members shall be defined as members of one's immediate family, parents, siblings, first cousins, aunts, uncles, nieces, nephews, and in-laws that would otherwise fall into one of the stated categories were they related by blood.

d. Any meeting, employment, contractual obligation, or consulting work done by any elected official within Erie County, with or on behalf of any lobbyist group, legal organization, or individuals, any of which are registered with the State of New York as a lobbyist, shall be disclosed. For the purposes of this section "meeting" shall be deemed to mean any public or private presentations made by the registered lobbyist for the benefit or education of the elected official. "Employment, contractual obligation, or consulting work" shall include any obligation that results in any payment to the elected official. The obligation to disclose shall be the responsibility of the registered individual lobbyist, group, or legal organization and all information disclosed shall be provided to the Erie county board of ethics as described herein.

Section 6. Prohibited activities.

No elected official, county officer or employee shall:

a. directly or indirectly, solicit any gift, or accept or receive any gift having a nominal value, whether in the form of money, service, loan, travel, entertainment, hospitality, thing or promise, or in any other form under circumstances under which it could reasonably be inferred that the gift was intended to influence him, or could reasonably be expected to influence him, in the performance of his official duties or was intended as a reward for any official action on his part. For the purposes of this sub-section, the term "gift" shall not include

(i) complimentary attendance, including food and beverage, at bona fide charitable events;

(ii) complimentary attendance, including food and beverage, offered by the sponsor of a widely attended event. The term "widely attended event" shall mean an event: (A) which at least twenty-five individuals other than members, officers, or employees from the governmental entity in which the public official serves attend or were, in good faith, invited to attend, and (B) which is related to the attendee's duties or responsibilities or which allows the public official to perform a ceremonial function appropriate to his or her position. For the purposes of this exclusion, a public official's duties or responsibilities shall include but not be limited to either (1) attending an event or a meeting at which a speaker or attendee addresses an issue of public interest or concern as a significant activity at such event or meeting; or (2) for elected public officials, or their staff attending with or on behalf of such elected officials, attending an event or a meeting at which more than one-half of the attendees, or persons invited in good faith to attend, are residents of the county, district or jurisdiction from which the elected public official was elected;

(iii) awards, plaques, memorabilia, honorary jerseys or other sports related clothing, and other ceremonial items which are publicly presented, or intended to be publicly presented, in recognition of public service, provided that the item or items are of the type customarily bestowed at such or similar ceremonies and are otherwise reasonable under the circumstances, and further provided that the functionality of such items shall not determine whether such items are permitted under this paragraph;

- (iv) an honorary degree bestowed upon a public official by a public or private college or university;
- (v) promotional items having no substantial resale value such as pens, mugs, calendars, hats, and t-shirts which bear an organization's name, logo, or message in a manner which promotes the organization's cause;
- (vi) goods and services, or discounts for goods and services, offered to the general public or a segment of the general public defined on a basis other than status as a public official and offered on the same terms and conditions as the goods or services are offered to the general public or segment thereof;
- (vii) gifts from a family member, member of the same household, or person with a personal relationship with the public official, including invitations to attend personal or family social events, when the circumstances establish that it is the family, household, or personal relationship that is the primary motivating factor; in determining motivation, the following factors shall be among those considered: (A) the history and nature of the relationship between the donor and the recipient, including whether or not items have previously been exchanged; (B) whether the item was purchased by the donor and not by a third party and given to the donor as a conduit to provide it to the elected official, county officer, or employee; and (C) whether or not the donor at the same time gave similar items to other public officials; the transfer shall not be considered to be motivated by a family, household, or personal relationship if the donor seeks to charge or deduct the value of such item as a business expense or seeks reimbursement from a client;
- (viii) contributions reportable under article fourteen of the election law, including contributions made in violation of that article of the election law;
- (ix) travel reimbursement or payment for transportation, meals and accommodations for an attendee, panelist or speaker at an informational event or informational meeting when such reimbursement or payment is made by a governmental entity or by an in-state accredited public or private institution of higher education that hosts the event on its campus, provided, however, that the public official may only accept lodging from an institution of higher education: (A) at a location on or within close proximity to the host campus; and (B) for the night preceding and the nights of the days on which the attendee, panelist or speaker actually attends the event or meeting;
- (x) provision of local transportation to inspect or tour facilities, operations or property located in Erie County, provided, however, that such inspection or tour is related to the individual's official duties or responsibilities and that payment or reimbursement for expenses for lodging or travel expenses to and from the locality where such facilities, operations or property are located shall be considered to be gifts unless otherwise permitted under this subdivision;
- (xi) meals or refreshments when participating in a professional or educational program and the meals or refreshments are provided to all participants;
- (xii) meals or refreshments when participating in a meeting related to county government activities and which are provided by another elected official or Erie county administrative unit or department; and

LL Intro. 6-1

- (xiii) food or beverage valued at fifteen dollars or less;
- b. disclose confidential information acquired by him in the course of his official duties or use such information to further his personal interests;
- c. receive, or enter into any agreement, express or implied, for compensation for services to be rendered in relation to any matter before any county agency of which is he an officer, member or employee or of any county agency over which he exercises administrative discretion or to which he has the power to appoint any member, officer or employee; or
- d. receive or enter into any agreement, express or implied, for compensation for services to be rendered in relation to any matter before any agency of the county, whereby his compensation is to be dependent or contingent upon any action by such agency with respect to such matter provided that this paragraph shall not prohibit the fixing at any time of fees based upon the reasonable value of the services rendered, provided however, that this section shall not be applicable to any county officer or employee who does not receive compensation by reason of his county position, not to any matter before a county agency which does not possess substantial discretion in the matter, not to any judicial proceeding in any county court or other court;
- e. He shall not, after the termination of service or employment with such municipality, appear before any board or agency of the county of Erie in relation to any case, proceeding or application in which he personally participated during the period of his service or employment or which was under his active consideration. In light of the legislative involvement in all levels of county government this prohibition on appearances shall apply for a period of (1) year after their termination of service.
- f. He shall not act as an attorney, nor be retained as an expert, rendering professional services in any legal action brought against the county of Erie arising out of personal injury or property damage or any lawful benefit authorized by law, while he is an elected official, officer or employee of the county of Erie. Nothing in this Code of Ethics shall be deemed to bar or prevent the timely filing by a present or former county officer or employee of any claim, account, demand, or suit against the county of Erie or any agency thereof on behalf of himself or any member of his family arising out of personal injury or property damage or for any lawful benefit authorized or permitted by law.
- g. Utilize any county equipment, materials, supplies or property for personal gain or benefit, with the exception of incidental use.
- h. Be a director, officer or trustee of any organization which receives from or through the annual county budget funds that constitute ten percent or more of that organization's annual operating expenses, except where appointment to such position is specifically authorized by the Erie County charter, administrative code or other applicable county or state law.
- i. No elected official, officer, employee or relative as defined in section 3(h) of this local law acting in an individual, or business capacity in which the individual is a sole proprietor, general partner or stockholder in a closely held corporation in which he holds fifty percent or more of the stock of said corporation shall (1) sell any goods or provide services having a value in excess of $100.00 to any agency of the county or to contract for or provide such services for or to any private entity when a power to contract, appoint or retain on behalf of such private entity is exercised directly or indirectly, by an agency of the county or of an officer or employee thereof, unless such goods or services are sold or provided pursuant to an award or contract let after public notice and upon competitive bidding.

j. In addition to any penalty contained in any provision of law, any person who shall knowingly and intentionally violate this section may be fired, suspended or removed from office or employment in the manner provided by law.

Section 7. Non Prohibited Activities.

Nothing contained in this section shall be construed as prohibiting an elected official, officer or employee from:

a. participating in public discussions or advocating any position in any manner in an official or in another capacity without compensation, including but not limited to acting as a public advocate whether or not on behalf of constituents.

b. appearing, unless otherwise prohibited, before all designated courts of law or agencies of the county in a representative capacity if such appearance before such agency is incident to a ministerial matter or with a matter not involved in the normal function or scope of duties of his office or position.

c. appearing before an agency of the county in a representative capacity on behalf of an employee organization in any manner where such appearance is authorized by an employee organization. This proscription does not apply to elected officials.

d. representing or filing any action against an agency of the county, or officer or employee thereof, in which the subject matter involves the normal functions or is within the scope of duties of his office or position.

Section 8. Disclosure.

a. Every employee of the county of Erie, other than those person required to make annual financial disclosures under subdivision b of this section, shall file, within ten days of taking office, or within ten days of appointment to a position of employment with Erie county, and annually on the fifteenth day of April in every year, the following disclosure statement:

Signature of Reporting

Date (month/day/year)

c. Any elected official or candidate for elected office who, either as an individual or as a member or employee of a private entity, organization or for-profit professional association of any kind, that is hired by a third party individual, association, organization, corporation or other entity to provide any type of service, and regardless of whether the elected official or candidate for elected office performs any services for said third party, the elected official or candidate for elected office is required to disclose the identity of that third party to the Erie County attorney's office and the Erie County board of ethics within five days of the hiring or retention if that third party is seeking any action, determination, ruling or lack of action from any department, administrative unit, or other board of the county, whether or not the elected official or candidate for elected office has personally provided the service to the third party. Such disclosure shall be required irrespective of the service being provided to the third party by the elected official, or candidate for elected office, or their private entity, organization or for-profit professional association. Within seven days of any then currently elected official being retained or hired in a position of employment by any private entity, organization or individual, in whatever form, the elected official must disclose the retention and hiring to the Erie county board of ethics and Erie county attorney's office. The Erie county board of ethics shall, within thirty days of receiving notice of such disclosure, review the details of the compensation and the services or products rendered for such compensation and determine that there is no prohibition in this code of ethics for the receipt of said compensation or for rendering such services. This provision shall apply to any elected official who is retained or hired as a member of a professional association, including, without limitation, to a partnership, trusteeship, corporation, firm or agency of any nature and receives compensation from a private entity, organization or individual, directly or indirectly. Such review by the Erie county board of ethics, to the extent allowable by law, shall be made public.

Section 9. Penalties.

a. Any individual, required to file a disclosure statement pursuant to section 8(a) or 8(b), who knowingly and willfully fails to file an annual statement of financial disclosure or who knowingly and willfully with intent to deceive makes a false statement or gives information which such individual knows or should have known to be false on such statement of financial disclosure filed pursuant to this section, shall be assessed a civil penalty in an amount not to exceed twenty thousand dollars. Assessment of a civil penalty hereunder shall be made by the Erie county board of ethics. A civil penalty for false filing may not be imposed hereunder in the event a category of "value" or "amount" reported hereunder is incorrect unless such reported information is knowingly understated. Notwithstanding any other provision of law to the contrary, no other penalty, civil or criminal may be imposed for failure to file or false filing of such statement, except that the appointing authority may impose disciplinary action as otherwise provided by law. Assessment of a civil penalty shall be final unless modified, suspended or vacated within thirty days of imposition and becoming final shall be subject to review at the instance of the affected reporting individual in a proceeding commenced against the Erie county board of ethics, pursuant to article seventy-eight of the civil practice law and rules.

b. For a violation of any section of this local law other than as described in subsection 9 (a), the board of ethics may, in lieu of a civil penalty, refer a violation to the district attorney and upon such conviction, but only after such referral, such violation shall be punishable as a class A misdemeanor.

c. The Erie County Board of Ethics shall adopt rules governing the conduct of adjudicatory proceedings and appeals relating to the assessment of the civil penalties herein authorized. Such rules shall provide for due process procedural mechanisms substantially similar to those set forth in article three of the state administrative procedure act but such mechanisms need not be identical in terms or scope.

Section 10. Erie County Board of Ethics.

a. The Erie County Board of Ethics, heretofore created by resolution of the Erie County Legislature adopted the twenty-ninth day of December nineteen hundred seventy, and continued in existence by Erie County local law number seven of nineteen hundred seventy-three, and continued in existence by Erie County local law number ten of nineteen hundred eighty-nine, is continued in existence subject to the provision of this section.

b. The Erie County Board of Ethics shall consist of eight members five shall be voting members and three shall be non-voting ex-officio members.

- a. Voting members shall be appointed by the County Executive subject to confirmation by the County Legislature. All members so appointed shall serve five-year terms of office, one such term expiring each year for the first five years. No more than three voting members of the same political party shall serve on the board at any time. No member shall be an elected official, a political party officer, a member of a political party committee or have any substantial business interests with the County of Erie. A substantial interest is one that is not remote or nominal and affects a proprietary or pecuniary interest directly impacting the appointee or any of his direct family members including parents, siblings, spouses and children. A substantial interest shall include, but not be limited to, employment, whether paid or unpaid, with the County of Erie or an organization that receives more than ten percent of its operating revenue from the County of Erie.
- b. The ex-officio members shall be appointed as follows: one appointed by the Chairman of the Erie County Legislature, one appointed by the Erie County Legislature's majority leader and one appointed by the Erie County Legislature's minority leader. Each non-voting member shall serve three-year terms of office, with one appointment expiring each year for the first three years.
- c. In the event a vacancy occurs prior to the expiration of a term of office for any member, such vacancy shall be filled for the balance of such term in the same manner as members are appointed to full terms.
- d. All members of the Erie County Board of Ethics shall reside in Erie County and shall serve without compensation.

- e. Any conflicts of interest that may arise for members of the Board of Ethics must be submitted in writing and noted in the minutes. Further, any member that must abstain from voting shall submit, in writing, the reason for their abstention to be included in the public record.
- c. The voting members shall elect a chairperson, a vice chairperson and secretary from among themselves.
- d. The Erie County Board of Ethics shall be the repository for completed annual statement of financial disclosure required by this local law.
- e. The Erie County Board of Ethics shall have all the powers and duties ascribed to a board of ethics by article eighteen of the General Municipal Law.
- f. Any county officer or employee may make written request to the Board to render an advisory opinion as to any question concerning the application of the Erie County Code of Ethics or article eighteen of the General Municipal Law to his own affairs, or if he be the head of a county department, administrative unit, or other agency of the County, the affairs of any of his subordinates. Such advisory requests and opinions shall be kept confidential in so far as is practical except from the person making said request and, if applicable, the person who is the subject of the request.
- g. The Erie County Board of Ethics may adopt and amend such rules of procedure as are appropriate.
- h. By written request of the Chairman of the Board of Ethics the County Attorney shall offer written opinions on any matter actively being investigated by the Board of Ethics. Outside counsel may be sought in any matter either at the request of the Chairman of the Board or at the suggestion of the County Attorney. Wherever practical, communications with counsel shall be conducted at formal meetings of the Ethics Board and shall remain part of public record.
- i. The members comprising the Erie County Board of Ethics in effect as of the date this Local Law takes effect shall remain in effect and the terms of office for those members shall continue pursuant to their original dates of appointment.

Section 11. Duty to report.

Every county officer or employee shall report to the Erie County Board of Ethics, district attorney and county attorney any action which may reasonably be interpreted as an improper attempt to influence him in the conduct of his office.

Section 12. Validity of claims.

Nothing in this code of ethics shall be deemed to bar or prevent the timely filing by a current or former county officer or employee of any claim, account, demand, or suit against the county of Erie or any agency or officer thereof on behalf of himself or any member of his family arising out of personal injury, property damage, or any lawful right of benefit authorized or permitted by law.

Section 13. Compilation and distribution of this code.

The county executive shall cause a copy of this code to be compiled with article eighteen of the general municipal law and such other material as he shall deem relevant and shall cause a copy of such compilation to be distributed to every officer and employee of the county within thirty days after the effective date of this local law or as soon thereafter as may be practicable. Every officer and employee elected or appointed thereafter shall be furnished a copy of such compilation within ten days after entering upon the duties of his office of employment.

Section 14. Laws repealed.

Erie county local law number ten of nineteen hundred eighty-nine as amended by Erie county local law number four of nineteen hundred ninety-four and Erie county local law number four – two of two thousand and fifteen, constituting the Erie county code of ethics, is hereby repealed.

Section 15. Effective date.

The local law shall be effective immediately.
