Inactive Hazardous Waste Disposal Site Classification Notice

The Inactive Hazardous Waste Disposal Site Program (the State Superfund Program) is the State's program for identifying, investigating, and cleaning up sites where the disposal of hazardous waste may present a threat to public health and/or the environment. New York State Department of Environmental Conservation (DEC) maintains a list of these sites in the Registry of Inactive Hazardous Waste Disposal Sites (the "Registry"). The site identified above, and located on a map on the reverse side of this page, was recently reclassified on the Registry as a Class 4 site as it no longer presents a significant threat to public health and/or the environment for the following reasons:

Remedial actions have been implemented at this site, and while contamination remains in groundwater, soil, and possibly soil vapor, through site management human exposures to this residual contamination are being, or will be, addressed as follows:

Groundwater - Groundwater use at the site is restricted without necessary water quality treatment.

Soil - Residual soil contamination is beneath a site cover system, which will be maintained; use and development of this site is restricted to commercial and industrial uses; and future excavations at the site will be conducted in accordance with an approved excavation plan to ensure that human exposures to contaminated soil are properly managed.

Soil Vapor - If new buildings are constructed on the site, a soil vapor intrusion evaluation will be completed and, if necessary, appropriate actions will be taken to address exposures.

Periodic reviews will be completed to certify that these elements of the remedy are being implemented and remain effective. Based on this information, reclassification from Class 2 to Class 4 is protective of public health.

If you own property adjacent to this site and are renting or leasing your property to someone else, please share this information with them. If you no longer wish to be on the contact list for this site or otherwise need to correct our records, please contact DEC's Project Manager listed below.
