

Suicide Prevention:

The Crucial Role of Primary Care Physicians

Thursday, September 10th

5:30 pm-8:30 pm

There will be a catered cocktail hour from 5:30 pm -6:15 pm

Presentations will start promptly at 6:30 pm

There is no cost to attend this event however, seating is limited and reservations are required.

Please click here to register.

The Suicide Prevention Coalition of Erie County would like to invite you to join us for an informative evening about Suicide Prevention and the crucial role of Primary Care. This important event will be held at the Darwin Martin House and will include presentations from community leaders, training on The Columbia Suicide Prevention Scale, Local and National data, and a panel discussion about local and state resources.

Guest Speakers:

Dr. Gale Burstein

Erie County Commissioner of Health

Dr. Judith Feld

Medical Director, Behavioral health and Healthcare Delivery Innovation Independent Health

Dr. John Notaro

Associate Medical Director Chair, Primary Care Department, Buffalo Medical Group, PC

Dr. Sigrid Penchik

Suicide Safer Care Implementation, NY State Office of Mental Health

Michael R. Ranney

Erie County Commissioner of Mental Health

Erin Ruston, LMSW

Primary Care Department, Buffalo Medical Group, PC

Sponsored By

Who Should Attend:

Primary Care Physicians – Physician Assistants –
Nurse Practitioners – Nurses – Medical Residents

Questions please contact:

Olivia Retallack: oretallack@crisisservices.org