Work Session: The Supervisor reported that no work session was held last week due to no quorum. The following issues were discussed prior to tonight’s meeting: water district issues, building projects, planning issues, concert request, cost analysis, contracts, dog issues and limerick hall & child protection issues, as well as any issues brought before the Board.

Privilege of the Floor – Dale Cheavacci of 113 John St asked for an update on the airport issues. The Supervisor told him the Town Board will vote tonight on a resolution to appeal the latest courts decision. He stated originally a request had been in play for creating an “airport zone” but was later dropped. It appears it may be back on the table so the resolution will address this also. There will be a public hearing of the Zoning Board on Thursday, March 28th at 6:30pm on the issue. The CEO still has not received any formal plans on any of the other proposed projects at the airport. Mr. Cheavacci also reported that on February 22, 2013 someone was up at the airport doing touch downs with a helicopter until after 10:00pm at night. He proposed the hiring by the town of an environmental attorney to assist in the case as well.

York – he attended the installation dinner of the Akron Fire Co and expressed his appreciation for the volunteers and all they do. He spoke with Kristine Sutton on the roof issues at the library and discussed this years ditching plans with Highway Supt. Bassanello. He stopped at the old highway garage to look at the test boring site and met with Wes Dust at ECWA regarding the pressure testing issues.

Supervisor- The Supervisor’s Report for February 2013 is on file with the Town Clerk. He expressed his congratulations to the Akron Fire Co’s newly elected officers and had attended the Clarence-Newstead Fire Police dinner. Today he had a conference call with Dan Borchert from the Village, Erie County Planning & Sarah Battaglia of Paint Recycling Group regarding the Town & Villages cooperative efforts at offering household hazardous waste and electronics drop-offs to their residents. He stated that right now the town & village are the only municipalities in the state working together offering the household hazardous waste service to their residents at no cost. Both municipalities are looking at additional ways to work together in a pro-active manner to offer residents these types of services. He also composed the response to the comptroller’s audit findings and thanked councilman Mayrose for making sure it went out on time. They next have to address the action plan. He also met with Brad Rehwaldt on the Senior Center roof issues.
