

LOCAL LAW No. 2 - 1961

A local law to amend the Erie county administrative code in relation to the submission to the county executive of a program of community mental health services, facilities, rules and regulations by the mental health advisory board.

Became a law September 12, 1961 with the approval of the County Executive. Passed by the local legislative body of the county of Erie. Filed in the office of the secretary of state September 19, 1961.

Be it enacted by the board of supervisors of the county of Erie as follows:

Section 1. Section 16.04, subdivision d. of article sixteen of the Erie county administrative code is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 2. d. The county executive shall appoint the members of the mental health advisory board in accordance with the provisions of section 190-b of article 8-A of the Mental Hygiene Law. Such members shall be residents of the county of Erie. The mental health advisory board shall elect annually a chairman, vice-chairman and a secretary from among its members. The mental health advisory board shall have and exercise the powers and duties conferred or imposed upon such board by the county charter or this code. Meetings of the mental health advisory board shall be held at the call of the director of community mental health or the chairman of such board on three (3) days' written notice mailed to the last known address of such board members. The mental health advisory board shall make recommendations and suggestions to the county executive relative to the qualifications and appointment of the director of community mental health and relative to the qualifications and duties of the assistant directors, officers or employees of the office of community mental health. The mental health advisory board shall submit to the county executive a program of community mental health services and facilities and rules and regulations concerning the rendition or operation of services and facilities in the community mental health program. Vacancies in the membership of the board occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired terms.

§ 3. This local law shall take effect immediately.
