Became a law September 12, 1961 with the approval of the County Executive. Passed by the local legislative body of the county of Erie. Filed in the office of the secretary of state September 19, 1961.

Be it enacted by the board of supervisors of the county of Erie as follows:

Section 1. Subdivision b. of section 16.03 of article sixteen of the Erie county administrative code is hereby amended to read as follows:

§ 2. b. The county executive shall appoint five members of the laboratory advisory board at least two of whom shall be physicians licensed to practice in the state of New York. Such members shall be appointed for a term of five years except that of those first appointed one shall be appointed for a term ending December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-one, one for a term ending December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-two, one for a term ending December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-three, one for a term ending December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-four, and one for a term ending December thirty-first, nineteen hundred sixty-five. The chairman of the board of health, the chairman of the hospital advisory board, the commissioner of health and the hospital superintendent shall be ex-officio members of the laboratory advisory board. The said board shall annually elect, from among the five members so appointed by the county executive, a chairman, vice-chairman and a secretary. Meetings of the laboratory advisory board shall be held at the call of the laboratory director or the chairman of such board on three (3) days' written notice mailed to the last known address of such board members. Such board shall have and exercise the powers and duties conferred or imposed on it by the county charter or this code. Such board shall make recommendations to the county executive relative to the qualifications and appointment of the county laboratory director and shall submit to the county executive a list of physicians deemed by said board to be qualified for appointment to the said office. The laboratory advisory board shall submit to the county executive a program of laboratory services and facilities and rules and regulations concerning the rendition or operation of services and facilities in the laboratory program. Vacancies in the membership of the board occurring otherwise than by expiration of term shall be filled by appointment for the unexpired terms.

§ 3. This local law shall take effect immediately.
