STATE OF NEW YORK: DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH

ORDER IN THE MATTER

THE CONSOLIDATION OF

The Veterans Administration of Western New York Health System and City of Buffalo into a single primary registration district pursuant to Section 4120(2)(a) of the Public Health Law

The Veterans Administration of Western New York Health System (VA WNY Healthcare System) (District 1498) and the City of Buffalo (District 1401), both constituting separate primary registration districts located in Erie County, each having adopted resolutions or requested, in effect, that they be consolidated into a single primary registration District 1401, which request has been approved by the Erie County Legislators.

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED THAT:

The VA WNY Healthcare System (District 1498) and the City of Buffalo (District 1401) are hereby combined into a single primary registration district pursuant to Section 4120(2)(a) of the Public Health Law, such consolidation to take effect immediately.

The City of Buffalo (District 1401) will assume all vital statistics registration duties which have been exercised by the VA WNY Healthcare System (District 1498) and will maintain all birth, death and burial permit files formerly maintained by the VA WNY Healthcare System (District 1498). The City of Buffalo (District 1401) will administer any and all requests for information formerly possessed by the VA WNY Healthcare System (District 1498), including requests for certified copies and/or genealogical copies of these records, and will hereafter receive and register all records which would have formerly been filed and registered in the VA WNY Healthcare System (District 1498).
