Old Business:

CEO Joe Czechowski handed out the updated Comprehensive Village of Alden Plan to the Planning Board Members and asked them to review it and let him know if any additional updates or changes may be needed and what their thoughts on it would be. CEO Joe Czechowski also informed the Planning Board that he is awaiting some answers from local business such as the Historical Society on questions they had to be implemented into the updated plan and will include these items once he gets the answers from the businesses he sent inquiries out to. CEO Joe Czechowski informed the members that if any maps they feel should be included to let him know so he can include them in the updated plan. Also, the members and CEO Joe Czechowski reviewed the vision map and decided that some changes would need to be made to this map. CEO Joe Czechowski will make the appropriate changes that were discussed to the updated plan. The new maps will be overlays so they can put them over existing maps to see what we had and to indicate if any changes will be needed in the future. This new updated Comprehensive Village Plan should be good until the year 2025.
